

University Park Privacy Policy

This website for University Park is hosted by Evergreen. It is intended to serve as a tool to inform supporters, partners, and friends about University Park, its programs, and other related news, as well as to provide the means for communities and individuals to take action to create healthier, greener cities.

In the course of providing this online service, information is exchanged back and forth between the Evergreen servers, online users, and their browsers. In some instances on this site, you may be asked to list your name, e-mail address, and other information. Our policy with regards to your personal information is listed below. Evergreen believes that your personal information deserves utmost protection. While you can visit the site without registering or providing any personal information, you will need to register if you want to receive communications regarding University Park, such as news updates, or leave comments.

Evergreen reserves the right to remove any submissions that are deemed to be offensive, illegal, off-topic or inappropriate in any way.

Personal Information

The information we collect is used to inform supporters, volunteers and partners about University Park's activities, programs, and ways to support our efforts. It will also be used to generate statistics and reports for internal use only. These statistics and reports will not contain any personally identifiable information.

Evergreen complies with the Canadian Personal Information Protection and Electronics Documents Act (PIPEDA), the Alberta and British Columbia Personal Information Protection Acts (PIPA) as well as Canada's Anti-Spam Legislation (CASL).

Evergreen reserves the right to cooperate with local, provincial and federal officials in any investigation requiring either personal information—including any personal information provided online through universitypark.evergreen.ca—or reports about lawful or unlawful user activities on this site.

If you have any questions about the collection, use and disclosure of personal information by Evergreen, please contact the Privacy Officer by telephone at 416-596-1495 x224, by email at privacyofficer@evergreen.ca or by mail at:
